ED Browder -vol 1

Volume one of the Browder files covers the period from 1954 to 1961. A May 28, 1954 cable ~~REB~~ from Mexico City reports that Browder was born in Amarillo, Texas on June 22, 1917. He has a long record of passing bad checks and has been convicted twice in federal courts for violation of the Neutrality Act and theft of government property in attempting to send 2 planes to assist in the revolution against the Venezuelan government. Under the name of Edward Sabatino, Browder obtained reservations in the Hotel Monte Cassino in Mexico on May 6. "For info ... this man considered either soldier or fortune or provocateur and info wanted on his activity by Havana.

Other Browder aliases: Edward Browder Sabatino, Eduardo Sabatino, Edward Sabatino Ollruier

In a letter from Browder to Mr. Henry Luce (Time-Life), dated 11-15-54, Browder offers Luce exclusive rights in full coverage of revolution in Costa Rica. Browder offers to send a C-47 to Dallas to pick up two of Luce's representatives. In the P.S. Browder says he would like to have George Silk on this assignment. A Nov 19, 1954 letter states that a wire was sent^{from Time} saying "Sorry cannot undertake."

11- memorandum for record. subj: Norman Rothman

Dated 30 June 1961 prepared by Catherine La Maistre

A- DOB - 26 Dec 1914 POB - Bronx, N.Y.

2- "When Rothman first came to CIA's attention in September 1958, he was living in Dallas, Texan and was allegedly engaged in public relations work. According to his wife, Gloria, he made a one-week trip to Los Angelos in September on undisclosed business."

3- In October 1959, Rothman was managing the Biltmore Terrace Hotel in Miami from which he was reported by the FBI to be supplying an anti-Castro organization with arms which he obtained through U.S. gangsters".

4. Following Pittsburgh conviction, Rothman went to Chicago, where he surrendered on charges of playing a key role in one of the biggest robberies in modern crim. history, the 13.5 million $ looting of a Canadian bank. Robbery was touched off when the Canadian branch of the mafia received a hurry-up order from the Caribbean for arms. The Canadian mafia did not have the money to buy arms, but it knew how to ~~get~~ get hands on the contents of the Brockville, Ontario bank. It called upon the U.S. mafia for assistance, and it was then that Rothman entered the picture, it was charged. Subsequently portions of loot turned up in Shanghai, Argentina, Cuba, & Australia.

S- "Before Rothman was tracked down in connection with the above crimes, he was reported by the FBI as traveling to Yucatan to seek a base of operations against the Castro govt. In this enterprise he was associated with Eduardo (Teddy) Whitehouse Insua, formerly of the Cuban Civil Aeronautical Association; ex-colonel Orlando Piedra Negueruela, former member of BRAC and head of Cuban Bureau of Investigations; and colonel Roberto Fernandez Micanda, brother-in-law of Batista and former commander of the presidential guards as well as president of the National Sports Commission. While no mention is made of Rolando Masferrers in this connection, Rothman has engaged in many exploits and deals with Masferrer."

G- "In September 1960, Rothman still out on $50,000 bond, made an approach to Frank Fiorini, soldier of fortune, offering to obtain two MIGS - one flown by a Czech and another by a Cuban. Fiorini felt that Rothman's ~~interest~~ ^{interest} was stimulated by a straight profit motive or by hopes for favorable treatment regarding the Federal case against him."

J- In Oct 1960 R. again appeared in Dallas, where he approached Robert E. Grinnan, an oil contracts promotion mzn. Rothman claimed to have connections with Nor-Roth Industries of N.Y.C. and stated that clients of his had an interest in purchasing 1/2 million metric tons of diesel fuel oil and one million metric tons of crude oil to be delivered over a five-year period to Hamburg, Germany. Grinnan, puzzled by the offer, reported to the FBI. He went to N.Y. in November and met Rothman and the other principals of the deal, a Mary Talley and a Dr. Phillip Paneth de Panay. Largely because of Grinnan's suspicions the deal was never consummated."

12 - memo for Deputy chief - W.H. Division from [Clark W. ⁰³ Simmons] re meeting with Norman Rothman & David M. McConnell dated June 30, 1961 met @ Rothman and McConnell on 29 June 1961 in office of Deputy Atty. Gen. to evaluate Rothman's claim to operational assets inside Cuba and elsewhere in the Caribbean area. 4-6:30 P.M. Agreed that R would return to Miami on Friday 30 June, and Mr. McConnell would phone [Simmons] on July 5 for evaluation of "Rothman's operational potential in Cuban affairs."

McConnell spoke to [Simmons] privately. McConnell described himself as a "leading political figure in the Democratic Party machine in N. Carolina," that he was acquainted @ Rob. Kennedy, Gen. Taylor, Gen. Van Fleet, corporate tax lawyer, concerned over embarrassment to the Kennedy administration caused by the Cuban "fiasco." McConnell stated that Rothman claims to have assets and capabilities which would enable Rothman to destroy the arms dumps on the plantation of ex-pres. Cardenzo of Mexico, to set up operational bases in the Yucatan at a cost of $50-$1,000, to sabotage targets in Cuba identified by the U.S. govt, and to provide positive intelligence on the activities of Chinese Communist groups in the Western Hemisphere."

Rothman stated ① Castro had executed 3 of his close friends: Rogelio Gonzalez; Sorin Marin; Efigenio Fernandez.
